 - I was divorced from my previous spouse. I have my certified divorce decree for each divorce with me. If you do not have these papers in your files, you can obtain certified copies from the Superior Court Clerk's Office in the county where you were divorced.
 - I was widowed. I have the death certificate of my former spouse with me. If you do not have a copy of this, you can obtain one in the county where your previous spouse died.

After you are married and the Officiant has SIGNED your marriage license, you must return the signed license to Terrell County Probate Court. The Probate court will then issue your certified marriage certificate and send it to you at the address provided to the court. You will need this to change your social security card and driver's license.
